STURGEON BAY, WI

(Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

After breakfast, meander through winding rural roads lined with cherry trees as we make our way to Seaquist Orchards. Our step-on guide will entertain and inform us on the inner workings of this family-owned orchard as we tour the acres of cherries, apples, and apricots. Following the tour, we'll sample a few products before doing some shopping. With a variety of salsas, jams, pie fillings, mustards, homemade fudge, and more, there's something for every palate. Next, we'll be awestruck by the historic North Pierhead Lighthouse, a majestic red beacon standing since 1882 at the entrance of Sturgeon Bay. After enjoying a group lunch, we'll head to Egg Harbor for a trolley tour to take in breathtaking vistas from Door County's scenic shores overlooking the islands. Along the journey, our knowledgeable guide will share the tales of local legend and lore, adding depth to each scenic spot we encounter. Dinner tonight is a unique experience that can only be found in Door County – a traditional fish boil that is a favorite meal of residents and tourists alike! What began as an economical way to feed large, hungry hoards of lumberjacks and fishermen has become an integral part of the Door County experience. We'll watch locally caught fish boil on an open fire in an outdoor, community-style kitchen, and when we see the fiery spectacle known as the "boil over," it will be just about time to eat!
